NEXT MEETING
FEBRUARY 8TH

7:00 pm

Mountainview Christian Church / Zoom

Reminder: We will be voting in new board members

President's Message

What a great year it has been being your president for 2021!! Thank you for your support, thoughts and kind words as we navigated another year in the midst of a global pandemic.

We will be meeting in person for our February meeting with some additional safety measures. We will be purposely spreading the chairs out to utilize our big room. We will also be asking that everyone use hand sanitizer when they enter. Gloves will be available for touching the pieces of leather Marie Anderson has to share with us. She also has some small pieces of leather to give away!! As always, wearing a good fitting mask 100% of the meeting will be expected. I believe we can meet safely with layers of protection in place. If you are not comfortable or unable to join us in person, please make sure to join us on zoom to hear Marie!

Again, thank you for being such a fun and giving guild. It truly has been a pleasure leading this year. I will continue to work closely with Delleen and Comfort Quilts; specifically the passage quilts for MHMC. I will remain involved in any way I am able.

Blessings.

Becky Caputo

Message from Membership

Our guild is nothing if not resilient! A big thanks to everyone for pivoting for the January meeting and attending via Zoom. 63 of us participated in the fun.

We are very fortunate to have a candidate for the Membership Chair position. Her name is Penny Gesdahl. Once we vote her in at the February meeting she will be off and running, taking care of all the membership needs. Yeah Penny!

It's been wonderful meeting everyone 'at the door' these past 2 years. Thank you!

Deb, Barb and Shirley

Quilt Show 2022 UPDATE

The beginnings of the Quilt Show committee (we have room for a few more members) met earlier this month and set three goals for ourselves. They were to find a location, set a date and find the equipment that we need to produce the show. Several of the committee members toured two locations and next meeting we will be deciding between the Springwater Church of the Nazarene, where we had the last show and the Mountainview Christian Church where we have our guild meetings for the location. The date will depend on which location but will be in October. And the Milwaukie Community Center has made the generous donation of their quilt show equipment to the Mt. Hood Quilt Guild. We are off to a good start.

At our next meeting, we will be deciding the location and what we want to include in our show. Of course, we will have the display of quilts, an Opportunity Quilt, and the Boutique. Other events could be Vendors- any suggestions from you are requested; Mini-quilt Silent Auction; Speaker- again suggestion welcome; A Make and Take project; and any thing you have seen at other shows.

There is a need to get started on the Opportunity Quilt soon. So, if you are interested in working on it or have any ideas, please let us know.

Other areas of need are 1) graphic design to help design our advertising materials, 2) someone with computer skill to create our data base and connect our application to our website.

The next Quilt Show Committee meeting will be February 6th at my home (5939 SE Iris Ct., Milwaukie) at 2 o'clock. I choose to have it at my home for safety rather than convenience, it has a filter on the furnace to zap the virus.

If you have any interest in the Quilt Show you are welcome. Any questions my phone is 503 659 3517, and my email is quiltshow@mthoodquiltguild.com

Block of the Month

FEBRUARY – LAST CALL FOR PATRIOTIC BLOCKS

Since we met online in January, and couldn't turn blocks in, we'll use the February meeting to turn in any 12.5" patriotic blocks you have ready. THANK YOU to everyone who brought in a block or more so far for our patriotic block drive. Our amazing guild members can always be counted on to step-up and help the community with their art.

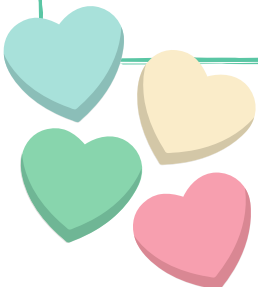

NOTE: We will have a raffle drawing for those who bring in blocks. If you dropped a block off, I should have your name on my list- but check before the meeting to make sure you get your ticket(s). One ticket per block, so more blocks, better chance to win! The prizes will be a quilty surprise. The blocks will be used for veterans quilts. The quilts made from the blocks will go to the Portland VA Hospital to be given to family members of veterans for comfort.

So far 4 beautiful quilts have been completed, five are in progress, and we will have blocks for a few more!

See this link for to a free pattern for a quilt block to use for the Feb. Use patriotic colors.

SNEAK PEEK: MARCH WILL RETURN TO NORMAL BLOCKS & A NEW CHALLENGE COMING SOON

Any questions, please email or call me @
ChallengeCoordinator@mthoodquiltguild.com or 503-329-1707

Scrap Management

Five inch blocks are always at hand after I've cleaned up a donated scrap pile. It seems like an easy way to cut and organize those extra pieces from others' projects.

Here's a quick idea to use some of those squares, and make a great looking quilt that puts your heart into the project!!

For a donation quilt that measures about 40x60

Five inch charms
8 in each row
13 rows
2.5" side borders
8 half-sq. triangles

Someone will feel all the Quilty Love that you put into it!

Simple straight line quilting with a walking foot makes a quick finish.

Bad Weather

In case of severe weather, our guild cancels in-person meetings when Gresham schools are closed.

BOARD MEETINGS

We welcome any guild member who would like to join in the guild board meetings!

At the moment we are Zooming the Tuesday 2 weeks prior to the general meetings at 6:30PM.

You can find the newly updated Zoom calendar on the Members Only page on the website or if you are interested in reading the minutes of the meeting that is where they are as well.

Next meeting is February 22nd.

MEETING NOTES

Mt Hood Quilt Guild
Members meeting
January 11, 2022
Zoom

Becky started the meeting at 7:00pm.

Becky thanked everyone for being flexible. Not sure what February will bring (in person/Zoom mix?) but Zoom will be an available option for awhile.

The first door prize went to: Sharon Jones. Becky will send it out to her.

Breakout session: What are you working on and how are you doing?

Nominations for 3 positions:

Treasurer: Ann Marie Rears/incumbent

President: Marie Anderson

Membership: Penny Gesdahl

All nominations were seconded. The voting will be in February. And the new positions will take over in February.

If you are interested in a Board Position talk to a board member.

The second door prize went to: Linda Danley.

Shirley Workman talked about the fall quilt show. The first meeting was last Sunday. Success, concerns, and goals were outlined. Our bylaws talk about showing, appreciating, and learning for the love of quilts= the goals of the quilt show. There will be one central committee with 8-10-12 people and lots of other help with sub committee's. Some of the help needed coming up fast will be the Opportunity Quilt. Items for the boutique will be happening soon too. Wendy S and Susan A-S have Quilt Show items stored at their their houses. The Quilt show will be in early October. The Next meeting will be Sunday, February 6 at 2:00pm at Shirley Workman's home. (5939 SE Iris Court, Milwaukie). Shirley's home has upgraded air filtration. The discussion will be about the location, and Opportunity quilt etc.

The third door prize went to: Nancy Roberts-Stathas.

Stitching Comforts video. Delleen did a video about all the quilts we have given to a variety of groups this year. The next Quilt Exchange will be Saturday, January 29th, 10am-12 noon at MountainView Church portico.

Breakout session: How many words can you make from: Charity Quilts. The winning group made 56 words.

Lori Oathes discussed the BOM (Block of the month) In February bring your Patriotic block. Or you can drop them off at the January 29th Quilt Exchange, or My Quilting Loft, or mail them to the PO Box. Look in the February Newsletter for the the next project. Lori also reviewed tips for making a perfect sized block. President's Block: can be dropped off at My Quilting Loft, the Quilt Exchange on January 29th or mail into the PO Box.

Show and Share- take a picture and email it to the newsletter and it will be put on the website.

Birthday drawing: The winner is: Vicky Lelifeld.

The final door prize: the winner is: Helen Bushue

Becky ended the meeting at 8:25pm
