NEXT MEETING NOVEMBER 3

7:00 pm

Mountainview Christian Church / Zoom

President's Message

Happy November Everyone!

Before I launch into November, I just have to say, "WOW!" about our quilt show! OK, I'll let others expand on this later.

Fall arrived just this last week as the warm weather faded away to rain and a chill that's getting a little more intense each day. I'm happy to put away the garden tools and hoses in exchange for indoor activities like sewing projects.

I found a few more incomplete projects and started working on them-some baby blankets and some panels that I got at our summer sale, 3 more quilts, another special project for a quilt show, an "invention" that doesn't look so good yet... the stack was more than "a few."

This time of year is when we start looking for a new President and Treasurer. We also need a Membership Chair. Speaking for myself, being more involved with the guild has been a lot of fun. We are an amazing group and I have really enjoyed my time as President. If you want more information, ask myself or any other board member.

Keeping you in stitches,
Marie Anderson
President

PROGRAM AND CLASS OPPORTUNITIES

November's Speaker is Robin O'Neil

Time for us to think outside the box! Robin O'Neil will be our featured speaker during the November guild meeting. She will be talking about IMPROVISATIONAL QUILTING. She will compare traditional quilts to modern and to improv quilts. She will bring over 20 quilts as visual examples. Robin was a special education teacher for 35 years and began making quilts the same year that she entered the classroom. Her interest in both education and quilting was sparked by children who seemed fearless about color, pattern, and play. She says life is too short for stress and fretting, especially about quilts. Robin also offers a class learning opportunity called Step Ladder, which teaches 7 different improv techniques. We can host the class if there is enough interest, at a cost of $35 per person. We have tentatively set aside Jan 21, 2023 for the class. Please sign up during the November meeting if you want to learn these 7 techniques, all in one day! Visit her website for more information. www.robinoneilquilts.com

Class Updates

The October Sparkly Threads class was a success and the second session is scheduled for November 19th. Please contact Julie Hale or Debbie Stoffer if you would like to be on the wait list. Superior Threads has extended the 20% discount coupon through the end of the year. Use Promo code Nancy20. If you are registered for the Nov. 19th class and have not received your supply list, please immediately reach out to Julie Hale or Debbie Stoffer. We are still working out logistics on the By Annie bag class. Please be patient and stay tuned.

Show N Share

November Show N Share: Due to limited time, the show and share will be the Quilt Show vendor ribbon winners and the Viewers Choice winning quilts. Shirley Workman is coordinating this fun quilt show review.

December Show N Share: Bring your sparkly, beautiful and festive quilts and any other holiday quilted projects for the December Guild Holiday Party to show and share with the membership. These do not need to be recently finished quilts.

We are looking for volunteers to help plan the Guild's December Holiday party. The board agreed that this year we will provide food, beverages and dessert. We would like your help with decorations and activity planning. Please contact Julie Hale or Debbie Stoffer during the November meeting if you are able to help.

Message from Membership

So grateful that our membership has really grown this fall...total at the moment at 201! So many more people to share their passion for quilting with our guild. Several new members joined at the September and October meetings. An amazing 19 new members signed up at the Quilt Show membership table. Welcome all!

Note to new members: You should have received an email with the link to the new members packet on the MHQG website. This has info regarding our history as a guild, our focus and options for participation. Please reach out to any member with questions or any Board member or contact membership@mthoodquiltguild.com

Thank you * Penny Gesdahl * for your work as Membership Chair this year. We will be installing a new chairperson soon.

Quilts of the East Wind MHQG Quilt Show

Update

I doubt if anyone remembers me saying that the quilt show is about the quilts and is to showcase them and the guild, and if we do it right we will make a bit of money. Well, WE did it right. That WE is all of you because any time the quilt show committee asked you for anything you were right there. You named the show, you made blocks for the raffle quilt, you made items for the Boutique, you donated things for the raffle baskets, but most of all You made quilts and entered them. And yes, we did make a nice sum of money.

I think we all have heard nice comments about the show. This email was sent to the Board, and I have been asked to share it with you.

"I attended your quilt show today in Gresham. After the long absence of quilt shows, yours was welcoming, lovely & inspirational. I loved the display of all the quilts, especially the series where the same pattern had been created by different quilters. It was delightful to see the different arrangement & color choices for the same patterns. Also the display of the intricate long arm quilters work was marvelous. I took several pictures. I especially liked #164 by Deborah Stewart called "Welcome Home", made for when her daughter returned from England. It was bright, warm & well, welcoming. But I didn't see a pattern name. I tried enlarging the photo I took of it and cannot decipher any clues. Perhaps it is one she herself created. I would appreciate it if you could help me with either the name of the pattern she used or if self created she would be kind enough to share. I live waaayyyy over in SW Portland, near Lewis & Clark College. My sister in law lives in Damascus and invited me to join her for the show. And as I said it was a great experience. Your guild is doing a great job on bringing together people who are very creative and enjoy the camaraderie of quilting. Thank you for any help you can give me."
Johnette Majury at "robertmajury@comcast.net"

Here is the list of the quilt that received ribbons from our Sponsors, Vendors, the Guild President, and the Show Chair.

Montavilla Sewing Centers	Sponsor	166	"Gossip in the Garden"	Linda Harman
Save Stores	Sponsor	108	"Fractured Star"	Linda Bergmann
Craft Warehouse	Sponsor	158	"Heritage Square"	Gerald Hillebrand
Marie's Custom Quilting	Sponsor	115	"Dancing Circles"	Jean Ludeman
Bonaventure	Sponsor	161	"Abigail's Bookcase"	Janet Larson
Pioneer Quilts	Sponsor	220	"Hexagon Millefiori"	Linda Burrell
Cedar Ridge quilts	Sponsor	235	"Wedding Ring quilt"	Elizabeth Sheeley
Tickle Creek	Vendor	151	"Starry Nights"	Tricia Crocker
Lala and Mer	Vendor	T130	"Temperature Quilt 2021"	Debby Potter
My Quilting Loft	Vendor	135	"First Run"	Patricia Sharp, Charlene Opperman, Andi Hobgood, Jean Ludeman, Darlene McKinney
Feather Your Nest	Vendor	211	"Greenhouse"	Christine Scott
Grandma's Cookies	Vendor	XXX	"12 Brides"	By the guild
Guild President Choice		153	"Baltimore Spring"	Shirley Workman
Quilt Show Chair		144	"Peace, Joy, Love"	Shirley Wilson

The winners of the Guest and the Member's choices will be announced at the November meeting.

Also, at the November meeting the Boutique will have a special on the items that were left after the show. Great chance to get gifts for the Holidays or that small design board that you meant to buy but didn't buy at the show.

Again, thank you all for making this show the showstopper that it was.

Shirley Workman

NOVEMBER 2022 BLOCK OF THE MONTH - HOT MUGS

True to Oregon fall, the rain has come, and with it a little chill in the air. I've found myself reaching for hot tea, coffee, or cocoa to help warm up. So this month's pattern was inspired by all the warm beverages we will enjoy over the next few months.

This is a confident beginner level pattern that you can do. Read directions carefully, and you are on your way! We have added a little challenge of fussy cutting to decorate your mug. The block goes together easily, and you may want to make an extra one as a mug rug to keep or give as a quick gift.

The pattern is posted on the Guild website in the Project Of the Month section. Click Here

BOM DRAWING: One block = 1 ticket for the drawing.

What is the Block Of the Month or "BOM"?

Each month the Guild has a Block Of the Month challenge where a specific free pattern is designated for interested guild members to make. The block(s) are then made and brought to the meeting to turn in for a drawing. The blocks are displayed to inspire all members. One ticket is given for each block turned in.

The blocks are then raffled off and the winner gets all the blocks!

Each block has at least one skill to practice or learn to keep our skills sharp. This month we will fussy cut a design to decorate the mug. The blocks are chosen to include all skill levels. So whether you are learning something new, or just want to be creative, give it a try!

It is fun to finish a quick project, and you may win the blocks !

I've been looking for quick quilts that you may want to try. One place to find patterns is from other groups who donate quilts. Here is a link to one that caught my eye.

<https://www.projectlinuskc.org/copy-of-patterns>

FAT QUARTER PARKING LOT

sounds like my kind of quilt!

Only 8 fat quarters (or scraps of a similar size) and I'll have a quilt top ready for a quick donation. This one calls to me, just based on the number of parking lots I've traveled to in the last few years to pick up fabric donations!

Fast & Fun Fat Quarter Parking Lot

Quilt Size: 40 1/2" x 48 1/2"

Fabric	Yardage	Quantity	Size
8 Different Fat Quarters at least 16 1/2" x 19 1/2"	8 Fat Quarters as shown in the diagram to the right. It should result in the following:	16 (A) pieces	4 1/2" x 19 1/2"
		24 (B) pieces	2 1/2" x 19 1/2"

	A	4 1/2"
	A	4 1/2"
	B	2 1/2"
	B	2 1/2"
	B	2 1/2"
	B	2 1/2"
	B	2 1/2"
	B	2 1/2"

- Make 8 Strip Set 1 using 1 Fabric A 4 1/2" and 2 Fabric B 2 1/2" strips varying the fabrics from each Fat Quarter. Iron toward dark. Cut 3 segments 6 1/2" from each Strip Set for a total of 24 segments.
- Make 8 Strip Set 2 using 1 Fabric A 4 1/2" and 1 Fabric B 2 1/2" strips varying the fabrics from each Fat Quarter. Iron toward dark. Cut 2 segments 8 1/2" from each Strip Set for a total of 16 segments.

3. Using the segments from Step 1 and 2, make 5 rows of 8 blocks each as shown. Sew rows together.

Past President Bev Meyer took the Silent Auction Quilt Home to Minnesota

Here are some pictures from the Quilt Show. We had lots of people stop to chat about our quilt donation program.

While visiting with them, I sewed blocks together..... enough for 4 tops! 😊
Binding, anyone??

These are the people who signed out kits, and returned quilts last month:

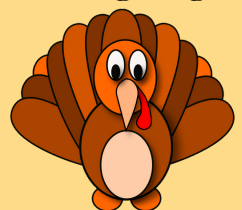

Barbara H, Barbara P, Debbi R, Debbie J, Denise B, Diane, Jean, Julie, Laura, Marian, Marion, Mary N, Susan K, Tricia C

What a fun presentation we had last month focusing on our small groups! More than 50% of members returned a survey, that's a pretty good turnout. For those of you who didn't attend the meeting, surveys were emailed to you. Don't forget to return your survey at the November meeting, if you've filled one out. We'll look at the results and will be talking about forming small groups during our holiday social, at the December meeting.

MEETING NOTES

October 6, 2022 MHQG ember meeting

Meeting started at 7:00 by Debbie Johnson for Marie Anderson who was unable to attend.
attendance in person - 84; on zoom - 10; 3 guests

Quilt show intake was at the front of the church beginning at 6:00 PM

At the meeting were the Fabric Finds table, Human Solutions red wagon for donations, the Free Table for contributions, and Community Outreach for drop off, pick up and long arm kits.

Presentation: everything you wanted to know about small groups but were afraid to ask. Susan handed out "small group interest survey" to garner more small group participation, a great way to make new friends and share the love of quilting. You can even start your own small group with as few as 4 people.

Each of the small groups gave a 5 minute presentation of their respective groups complete with a show and share of quilts their groups make. Many of the groups are closed, not taking new members but Mystery Mavens is still open and welcomes anyone who would like to join in the Bonnie Hunter mystery fun.

The Sew Happy group gets together, each brings their lunch, and they sew and have a good time. This is a closed group.

Debbie Johnson talked about their group that gets together for dinner, not to sew together, but trade blocks, have in-group challenges, and made "block robbin" quilts and table runners which they brought to share. This group meets on Wednesdays and is a closed group.

Open Sew is on Sundays. This group began at Fabric Depot until they closed and is now on Zoom open to everyone.

Embroidery group "Grateful Thread" is a newer open group which meets on zoom and is about all things embroidery.

October birthday winner - Nina Gilliland

BOM was maple leaf in fall colors - won by Susan Ainsworth-Smith

Quilt show: volunteers are still needed. Sign up sheets are available for all positions and shifts.

There are 150 quilts in the show, about  $\frac{1}{3}$  of which are from small groups.

There is still room in Nancy Goldsworthy's Sparkly Thread classes which are $30.00 each.

Penny will be resigning from the position as membership chair

Show and Share

Debbie ended the meeting at 8:17
