NEXT MEETING OCTOBER 6

7:00 pm

Mountainview Christian Church / Zoom

President's Message

Happy October Everyone!

October is our first month of transitioning to the new schedule. I don't know about you all, but it usually takes me a bit to get into a new routine.

I tend to forget. For instance, the first Tuesday of each month I have a Historic Downtown Gresham Business Owners meeting. We have been meeting the first Tuesday of each month forever. Last month we all decided to switch it to the second Tuesday. I agreed - the first Tuesday was right after Labor Day. Several of the business owners had kids to get off to school etc. So what did I do The first Tuesday? Did I sleep in? Did I stay at home and catch up on housework or my social media? Nope! I was out the door and the first one there for that meeting...the one that wasn't happening until the following week...

So I am setting alarms, marking in my written calendar and my phone calendar, leaving notes in my car, telling my husband and wrapping my finger with a string - from now on Guild meeting is on the first Thursday!

Now all that said, I won't be able to be there October 6th. October is the last month I take 2 of my grand kids to soccer on Thursdays. So while you enjoy the meeting and show off your lovely quilts, I'll be sitting in a field watching 8 year-olds chase each other around a field.

Keeping you in stitches,
Marie Anderson
President

PROGRAM AND CLASS OPPORTUNITIES

“Everything you always wanted to know about Small Groups but were afraid to ask” will be presented to the guild during the October meeting. A spokesperson from each of the current active small groups will share what their group does, and offer insight into the benefits of being in a small group.

Nancy Goldsworthy’s class “Sparkly Threads” for Oct. 8 th is full, but here is the good news. A second class is scheduled for November 19th . We still have a few spots open for this second session. There will be a sign-up sheet at the treasurer’s table during the October meeting. Superior Threads is offering an exclusive discount to Mt Hood Quilt Guild through Oct. 31, 2022. Use promo code Nancy20 to receive 20% off your order from them.

Have you always wanted to learn how to make one of the cute By Annie projects? Well, here is your opportunity. We thought it would be great to offer a class in time to make holiday gifts using the popular By Annie pattern Clam Up. Camile Ainsworth has agreed to teach a class on November 5 beginning at 10 am. We need at least 10 people to sign up. Cost will be $30 and there will be a sign-up sheet at the treasurer’s table. Camile will be on hand during the October meeting with samples of several of the By Annie projects.

Holiday party...Yes, the holidays are just around the corner and will be here before you know it. We will be seeking volunteers to help with the annual party during our December meeting.

OCTOBER 2022 BLOCK OF THE MONTH - FALL LEAVES

It's official, it is Fall. This month's pattern was inspired by all the new leaves in the yard. This is again an easy pattern with fairly large pieces that goes together quickly. This one makes really nice table runners or table toppers.

The pattern is posted on the Guild website in the Project Of the Month section. Click Here

BOM DRAWING: One block = 1 ticket for the drawing. The winner of this month's drawing will also get a little extra something to go with your leaves.

What is the Block Of the Month or "BOM"?

Each month the Guild has a Block Of the Month challenge where a specific free pattern is designated for interested guild members to make. The block(s) are then made and brought to the meeting to turn in for a drawing. The blocks are displayed to inspire all members. One ticket is given for each block turned in.

The blocks are then raffled off and the winner gets all the blocks!

Each block has at least one specific skill to practice or learn to keep our skills sharp. This month we see a different kind of "stitch-and-flip" method to make the stem. I bet you will work this technique into other projects! The blocks are chosen to include all skill levels. So whether you are learning something new, or just want to be creative, give it a try!

You may just win the blocks !

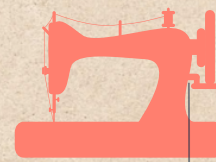

Hint: Try putting 4 blocks together with stems pointing toward the middle to create a secondary design.

Oh! - also quilting the pile of donated tops to pass on to binding volunteers. I think we all need a simple gift - an easy pattern from Project Linus! I can't wait to see your quilts!

Attendance: in person 97 On zoom 13

Birthday winner is Susan Ainsworth - Smith

Block of the month was pumpkins and the winner of the blocks and coordinating fat quarter fabric was Louise Bird

Skip a Week fabric sales were here this week

Speaker was Nancy Goldsworthy. She spoke about sparkly threads, all things to know about thread and needles. All threads don't sew the same. As for needles, if the thread doesn't slide through the eye, it doesn't sew. If you have issues with the way the thread comes off the spool, use a thread stand. The class for Nancy's sparkly threads, at $30.00 per person, is completely filled and there is a waiting list.

Quilt show - sign ups needed for 2 hour shifts: hanging quilts starting at 4:00 Thursday night ; sorting and hanging of the quilts; admissions; take down and sort hangers; clean up; boutique
More items are needed for the boutique.

Columbia River Quilt Show Oct 8th and 9th in Hood River

Tomme - there is an education tab on the Superior Thread website for education videos

Due to the Guild losing its meeting space for the second Tuesday of the month a vote was taken of the members to decide when and where the guild should continue meeting. The majority voted for the 1st Thursday of each month beginning in October 2022.
